

CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING ACTIVITIES AS SUSPICIOUS:

Some people fail to call simply because they are not aware of what seemingly innocent activities might be suspicious. Others may notice suspicious activity and be hesitant to call for fear of being a nosy neighbor. Many often take it for granted that someone else has already called the police.

CALL 911 IMMEDIATELY about all suspicious activity. DO NOT worry about being embarrassed if your suspicions prove to be unfounded. THINK INSTEAD ABOUT WHAT COULD HAPPEN IF YOU DO NOT ACT.

THINGS TO LOOK FOR

Anything that seems “out of place,” or that is occurring at an unusual time of day could be criminal activity. Some things to watch for and report include:

- A person or vehicle stays in the same place for an unusual length of time.
- A parked car with the engine running.
- A person behaves strangely or exhibits unusual movements.
- A person looking into cars, moving from car to car, and/or tries door handles.
- A person looking into offices, patient rooms, labs, windows, or forcibly entering a car or a room.
- A person running from an area for no apparent reason, especially at night.
- A person carrying/transporting unusual/valuable objects, day or night.
- A person sells/conducts business out of their car, van, or other vehicle.
- A vehicle without lights on, arriving or leaving at night.
- A person you don't know offering candy or gifts to children
- Vehicle containing weapons suspicious under almost any circumstances.
- Exhibiting unusual mental or physical symptoms. Do not approach these people.
- Abandoned vehicle possible stolen car.
- Going door to door in residential or business area Especially suspicious if, after few houses are visited one or more of the subjects goes into a back or side yard. More suspicious if another remains in the front when this occurs.
- Waiting in front of a house or business particularly suspicious if owners are absent, or if it's a business and the establishment is closed.
- Forcing entrance to or tampering with a residence, vehicle, etc. Suspicious under almost any circumstance.
- Certain moving vehicles especially if slow moving and without lights, or if the course followed appears aimless or repetitive. This is suspicious in any location, but particularly in the area of schools, parks, or playgrounds.
- Person detaching mechanical parts or accessories from a vehicle suspicious especially at night in the street or in a parking lot.
- Unusual Noises, etc. Gunshots, screaming, sound of fighting/combat, abnormally barking dog, anything suggestive of foul play, danger, or illegal activity.

Remember, these are many activities that could be considered suspicious. A suspicious activity is an occurrence that is out of place and should not be happening in our community. There could be reasonable explanation for some suspicious activities. By thinking things through, being observant and using common sense, you will be able to make a good judgment about whether an activity is suspicious. If you call the police and you were wrong, its okay, you will not be in trouble. Your role as a concerned citizen is to report whatever you think is wrong or suspicious.
